

THE ST. JOHNS REVIEW
A. W. Markle Editor
Published Friday of Each Week
404 N. Jersey St. Phone Col. 321
Subscription price $1.50 per year.
The Review is entered at post office in Portland, Oregon, as mail matter of the second class under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Parties desiring advertising should arrange for their space early. It is the steady advertiser that secures the steady business. There is no business in St. Johns that is so poor it cannot afford to advertise in the local paper. The Review has done all in its power to produce an advertising medium that is unexcelled anywhere, and has succeeded in doing so. There is no better advertising medium anywhere than the Review. That all the business men do not take advantage of this fact is no fault of ours. Advertising is the one thing that will keep trade at home. People are prone to buy where they see articles advertised. The price of advertising in the Review has been made as low as is possible to produce a newspaper, in fact it has been too low, as the paper several times has been put out at a loss. We have refrained from soliciting advertising in Portland because we have wanted to make the paper as local as possible. It would seem that every business man in St. Johns would be represented in the Review columns, but there are a number here that are passing the opportunity by. Some papers, on a subscription basis, with a less circulation, are charging higher prices than the Review with its free local distribution. It is the steady advertiser that gets the best results. And it costs less for advertising space, as the price now is somewhat more for the occasional advertiser than the steady one. Let every business, big or small, be represented in the Review. The opportunity is at your door; what are you going to do about it, Mr. Non-Advertiser? Why not aid us in getting out a larger and better paper, and help your business at the same time?

The St. Johns branch of the Whitney Boys Chorus got started again, after the Summer vacations. We did not have all the boys present last Tuesday, but will certainly have more at the meeting next Tuesday. Some were still on their vacation, while others had to get school books. Some perhaps did not know about it and others forgot. Next Tuesday evening at 7:30 we want all to be present. Every boy should bring another. We ask the parents to send their boys and if possible attend themselves. All can help with the singing. At the same time it gives the boys more encouragement. We especially need men to sing tenor and bass. Bring your friends. Every Tuesday from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m. at the Congregational church. Our next concert will be at the State Fair at Salem. We want to go there 1000 strong! We need about 300 more members. If every boy will do his part it will not take long. If there is anything else you would like to know, be there next Tuesday or ask Mr. Kreckel at 2030 Willamette boulevard. Col. 93.—Reported.

Thos. Autzen, chairman of the St. Johns Community Club Fair Committee, has charge of the questionnaire relative to site for the Great Exposition, and that the questions propounded therein will be fully covered and answered in a satisfactory manner by the committee is a matter of course. St. Johns can fulfill the requirements better than any place mentioned as a site for the Fair. The committee consists of Thos. Autzen, chairman; H. W. Bonham, J. N. Edlfsen, C. C. Curran, Dr. A. E. Mulkey, F. P. Drinker, A. E. Jones, H. W. Ormandy, W. R. Hollenbeck, Dow Walker and W. M. Tower.

The Garden Exhibit of the schools will be held in the Peninsula National Bank lobby Sept. 15th. This exhibit is the outcome of the Garden contests introduced by the Bank last year which proved very successful. The contestants are taken from the grammar grades in all the schools on the Peninsula and are furnished seeds with which to start their gardens. Prizes in the form of Savings Accounts are given the winners.
